

Richard Wentworth in Conversation with Marina Warner

5.30 - 7.00 p.m. Monday 18 June 2007 Seminar Room, Ivor Crewe Lecture Theatre, University of Essex

Internationally acclaimed British sculptor Richard Wentworth and globally celebrated prize-winning novelist, critic and art historian Marina Warner meet for a unique discussion, providing a creative insight to the exhibition Reality Undone and the nature of art.

Marina Warner and Richard Wentworth have been pioneering figures of their generation, and we offer an exclusive opportunity to meet and listen to two of the most important representatives of the British contemporary intellectual world.

Events in association with Reality Undone, a contemporary art exhibition featuring:

Frode & Marcus, Jorge Macchi, Chema Madoz, Duane Michals, Ivan Navarro, Richard Wentworth.